Nomination of a legal representative to act on behalf of an individual

! The fastest way to nominate a representative is over the phone. See 'More information' below.

Alternatively, you can use this form to notify us if you have appointed a legal representative (barrister or solicitor) to deal with the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) about your personal taxation affairs on your behalf.

It is important to know that:

- any nomination will continue indefinitely until you let us know that it no longer applies
- nominating a legal representative does not cancel any previous nomination
- you will need to phone us if you no longer want a representative to act on your behalf. See 'More information' below.

Scope of legal representative authority to act on your behalf

To nominate a legal representative to be your authorised representative for all matters administered by the ATO, you must indicate this by marking 'X' next to 'concerning all my taxation affairs', under section B.

You can limit your legal representative's authority to specific matters only. Indicate this by marking 'X' next to 'concerning the following specific matter(s)', under section B.

BE CLEAR ABOUT HOW MUCH AUTHORITY YOU GIVE

Think carefully about the extent of the authority you are giving. The ATO will only discuss your taxation affairs with your legal representative according to your statement of authority on this form.

! The names of the legal firm and specific authorised legal representatives will be placed on your record as your authorised representatives. No discussion of your affairs can take place unless authority to do so has been recorded on our systems and the proof of record ownership is satisfied.

> MORE INFORMATION

Phone 13 28 61 between 8.00am and 6.00pm, Monday to Friday.
