Dear Registrar Delegate,

This email serves as formal reply from both:

- Phoenix Securities Trust – Lien Administrator for the Grant-David: Johns Estate
- Mataya Securities Trust – Lien Administrator for the Karra-Leanne: Corbet Estate

In respect of your respective notices:

- ENQ-1240164-F0Z3J0 (Phoenix Securities Trust)
- ENQ-1240165-C1F1M1 (Mataya Securities Trust)

Please find attached our joint formal response dated 17 October 2025, which provides clause-matched evidentiary rebuttal to each PPSR registration, supported by duly notarised security agreements executed 2 April 2025. These instruments satisfy the legal criteria under Section 12(1) and (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) and remain active, enforceable, and supported by international filings.

LEGAL OBLIGATIONS & NON-REMOVAL NOTICE

We refer to the governing sections of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth):

- Section 12 – Definition of security interest
- Section 184 – Removal permitted only if registrations are frivolous, vexatious, or not tied to an actual security interest
- Section 191 – Any action to remove may be appealed to the AAT, and international remedy invoked

Any action in breach of the above without lawful finding shall be deemed administrative fraud and will be escalated as:

- Breach of international treaty obligations (HCCH #30, ICCPR)
- Violation of equity protection instruments
- Foreign interference in a private secured estate

FORMAL NOTICE

You are hereby placed on full record that international oversight is now active. Should you remove the PPSR registrations outside lawful scope, the Secured Parties will invoke further lien enforcement upon:

- The office of the Registrar
- AFSA as a body corporate
- Publicly register further claims under UCC and PPSR upon breach
- Lodge violations through ICCPR mechanisms for breach of remedy, property rights, and access to lawful settlement

This is not a threat, but a lawful notice of standing and remedy.

The estates are protected under sealed instruments and equitable lien, and the delegated authority must uphold the same.

We respectfully invite confirmation in writing by close of business, 23 October 2025 that:

1. All PPSR registrations will remain on record
2. This review is now formally closed
3. No further administrative harm will occur

Failure to provide written confirmation by the deadline will be recorded as a continuation of dishonour, establish administrative estoppel, and trigger immediate escalation through lien enforcement and international registry protocols.

These agreements:

- Identify the Debtor and Secured Party clearly by name, estate registration number, and Trust designation
- Create and perfect an enforceable security interest over both tangible and intangible personal property, including:
 - Currency
 - Negotiable instruments
 - Chattel paper
 - Intermediated securities
 - Investment instruments
 - Document of title
 - All present and after-acquired property

Each PPSR registration mirrors and is backed directly by the agreement.

Each clause aligns with the registered description, providing clear, notarised justification.

LEGAL BASIS AGAINST REMOVAL UNDER PPSA

You must not remove the registration unless proven to be frivolous, vexatious, or not based on a security interest under Section 184.

Given:

- Certified, signed security agreements exist
- The agreements were executed in good faith
- They secure trust and estate-linked collateral of the Grantors

The removal of these registrations would:

- Contravene Section 191 rights to due process and independent review by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal
- Breach the Registrar's obligations under Section 10 and 12 of the PPSA

VERIFICATION AND RECORD TRACEABILITY

All supporting instruments are:

- QR-sealed and timestamped
- Served under registered mail to the Grantors
- Included in trust record ledgers maintained under HCCH Convention protocols

You are formally invited to inspect the complete trust record archive:

DECLARATION

We hereby affirm that each PPSR registration is lawfully perfected under the Act, with full supporting evidence enclosed and referenced. No deception, fraud, or error has occurred. Any attempt to remove these registrations would be a breach of the Registrar's duty under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) and international equity record obligations.
